Student Spotlight: Featuring Da'juantay Wynter

Meet Da'juantay Wynter, our sophomore TRIO Scholar and Ervin Scholar!

I'm from Sacramento, California and currently pursuing my majors in Education and American Culture Studies and a minor in Business Of Social Impact.

As an active member of the campus community, I serve as a Senate member in the Student Union and a Learning Center Academic Skills Peer Coach. I am also on the Black Anthology Executive Board, part of the Student Affairs Advisory board and National and Faculty Library Council student representatives, and also engage with Phi Delta Phi Pre-Law Fraternity and the Dining Service Advisory Team.

Some other achievements throughout my career include attending the Harvard Public Policy Leadership Conference and being a Stanford Law Scholar.

Please read this Student Affairs article to learn more about Da'juantay!
